HEALTHCARE HEROES CLEAN UP THE STREETS

TORONTO – To celebrate World Environment Day, Runnymede Healthcare Centre is taking to the streets. On Thursday, June 5, 2014, the hospital's staff and volunteers are giving back to the local community by holding a community cleanup.

Along with Runnymede's participation in the National Commuter Challenge, the cleanup aims to raise awareness of the importance of ecological sustainability and the hospital's efforts to reduce its environmental impact.
