THE QUEEN'S OWN RIFLES OF CANADA COMMEMORATE REMEMBRANCE DAY AT RUNNYMEDE HEALTHCARE CENTRE

TORONTO — The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada will join Connie Dejak, President and Chief Executive Officer of Runnymede Healthcare Centre and patients, many of whom are veterans, for a Remembrance Day Ceremony on Saturday, November 9.

The ceremony will begin with The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada—the country's oldest continuous infantry regiment—marching into the hospital dressed in 1860's uniform, to the buglers playing the skirmishers call. Following will be a performance of The Last Post, a reading of In Flanders Fields and a moment of silence to pay tribute to the brave men and women who gave their lives in the line of duty.

Date: Saturday, November 9, 2013

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Place: Runnymede Healthcare Centre
625 Runnymede Road
Toronto, ON M6S 3A3

About Runnymede Healthcare Centre

For nearly 70 years, Runnymede Healthcare Centre has been leading the way in complex continuing care. The focused, innovative, 200-bed hospital takes an interprofessional team approach to care, providing comprehensive clinical services to patients who require expert treatment, extended rehabilitation and daily care beyond what can be provided at home in the community or in long-term care. Runnymede provides the right care in the right place at the right time to make a difference in patients' lives.
